The Holly Jolly Decorating Party is Next Sunday!

It's time to decorate the church for Advent! We'll have tasks for all ages and abilities following the congregational meeting. We hope to serve a selection of Christmas goodies and cocoa. If you can provide a dozen cookies or bars, please bring them to the church on Sunday! Make sure to let us know if they have nuts in them.

Congregational Meeting Follows Worship on Sunday, Nov 29

Following the rules set forth in the constitution, we need to have a quorum to vote to release some funds from the endowment to meet our budget this year. Please stay in the sanctuary following worship for information and the vote.

The annual progressive dinner will begin at the home of Paul and Melinda Batz in Bloomington for appetizers, then we'll break into smaller groups to enjoy the main course in individual homes, and finally we'll come back together for dessert and fellowship. This festive adults-only tradition is a fun evening of good food, conversation, and holiday cheer! The sign-up sheet is in the Commons Area or email organizer Dawn Bartl at dbartleuro@yahoo.com. (We are still in need of a host for the dessert course!)

This Luther Park fundraiser helps provide scholarships to campers who need them. More info and tickets at the QR code. Diamond Lakers are building a soup basket to auction off at the event. We're collecting packages of dried soup mixes and jars of prepared soups. What's your favorite soup to savor on a cold winter's night? Drop off a mix or jar by Thursday, December 3rd. A collection basket will be located on the table under the bulletin board, or in the office.
