

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 1, 2026

9:30 am

DIAMOND
LAKE
LUTHERAN CHURCH

Welcome to Diamond Lake Lutheran Church!

We are so glad you are here! If you'd like more information about this community of faith, please fill out a Welcome card (found in the pew pockets near the hymnals) and place it in the offering plate or hand it to Pastor Andrea or an usher following worship. Take the Grow card with you if you wish! We invite you to enjoy coffee and Bogart's Doughnuts in the Commons before and after worship. Please wear your name tag each Sunday—it helps us welcome guests, get to know one another, and support those with memory concerns. If you don't yet have one, visit the Commons Area name tag station to make yours. We encourage adding pronouns to name tags!

Children in Worship

Children are encouraged to be present for worship—build-your-own activity bags are located in the narthex, along with children's bulletins. Children are invited to use the Pray-Ground at the front of the sanctuary. A nursery is located on the lower level if you need it. Please ask an usher for directions. If you are a nursing parent, you are welcome to nurse anywhere. If you would like privacy, there is a nursing room in the nursery downstairs.

WORDS OF WELCOME

TRINITY CHIMES

CHORAL CALL TO WORSHIP

Matthew 25:34, arr. Miller

‡ THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

The crashing waters of creation connect us to all that God has ever made, across time and space. Water sustains us as we move through our lives, water reminds us how fragile we are, and water ties us to the promises of the sacrament of baptism.

Each time we baptize in our tradition, I ask you:

Do you renounce the devil and all the forces that defy God?

And you respond,

We renounce them!

And I ask you:

Do you renounce the powers of this world that rebel against God?

And you respond,

We renounce them!

And I ask you:

Do you renounce the ways of sin that draw you from God?

And you respond,

We renounce them!

But these are fancy, churchy phrases, and what I really mean to say is:

Do you renounce the forces of evil you cannot even see, but whose effects are made manifest in our own lives, in the lives of our friends and neighbors, and in the lives of people we will never even meet – forces that work to tear down the kin-dom of God?

We renounce them!

Do you renounce the powers and principalities that enact evil in our streets and in the halls of power, that defy international peace-keeping efforts, that trample on any understanding of universal human rights?

We renounce them!

Do you renounce the reluctance in your own hearts to draw near to God, to draw near to the suffering of your neighbors, and to repent, all of which prevent you from moving forward with a more direct focus toward justice and joy?

We renounce them!

We call this season of the church year “Ordinary Time,” and yet there is nothing ordinary about the living of these days. And so we give thanks for the gift of baptism, and for the reminder of the promises we make in the midst of that sacrament:

*to proclaim Christ through word and deed,
care for others and the world God made,
and work for justice and peace.*

Do you promise, then, to honor these promises made in the sacrament of baptism?

We do, and we ask God to help and guide us.

May it be so!

Amen.

‡ GOSPEL: JOHN 4:46-54

The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the fourth chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Then Jesus came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had changed the water into wine. Now there was a royal official whose son lay ill in Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe." The official said to him, "Sir, come down before my little boy dies." Jesus said to him, "Go; your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and started on his way. As he was going down, his slaves met him and told him that his child was alive. So he asked them the hour when he began to recover, and they said to him, "Yesterday at one in the afternoon the fever left him." The father realized that this was the hour when Jesus had said to him, "Your son will live." So he himself believed, along with his whole household. Now this was the second sign that Jesus did after coming from Judea to Galilee.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERING

O God Beyond All Praising, Holst/Perry/Hayes
Diamond Lake Lutheran Choir

General Fund

We give thanks for all the ways members and friends of Diamond Lake Lutheran Church contribute to the mission and vision of this congregation—gifts of time, gifts of participation and expertise, as well as finances. Financial gifts to the general fund help to make possible both in-house and outreach ministries, as well as sharing of our resources with the wider community.

February Mission of the Month: Lake Street Council

Recent immigration raids have made it harder for some business owners and employees to show up safely and consistently, leading to lost income and increased uncertainty. The February Mission of the Month supports Lake Street Council, whose work helps employ community members, keep storefronts open, and sustain the neighborhood's economic and cultural vitality. To learn more about the Lake Street Council and its work, go to www.visitlakestreet.com.
