Announcements

January 19, 2025

Visit our website for service opportunities and more activities. Find the latest issue of The Ripple (our monthly magazine) in the narthex just outside the sanctuary or in the Commons gathering area. Please take one home.

Today after worship: We have two service projects set up for people of all ages: choose to build unhoused care kits, make cards for those in need, or do both!

Rehearsals for the youth musical are underway! Those participating should head to the Lakeview Room, 11 am-1 pm. Then, the Youth Lock-In begins at 1 pm at Woodlake Lutheran Church (but make sure to stay until the end of rehearsal!).

National Day of Racial Healing
Tuesday, January 21
10 am-2 pm
Free and online;
Register at: ELCA.org/NDORH

Presented by the ELCA in partnership with Augsburg Fortress Publishers, this educational event will feature worship, workshops, music and guided reflection while centering the voices of ELCA leaders of color. The lineup of workshops and speakers is designed to raise awareness of the need for racial healing and to inspire collective action toward building common ground for a more just and equitable world.

DIAMOND LAKE
LUTHERAN CHURCH

Survivors, a play about the Holocaust and standing up to hate, weaves together the true, inspirational stories of 10 Holocaust survivors whose ordinary and joyful young lives were transformed by the Nazi regime. Illustrating the risk of normalizing hate, this uplifting work impels us to take lessons from the past and think about how we can create a safer, more inclusive community. This performance from Six Points Theater will take place at Diamond Lake Lutheran. Free and all are welcome!
