DIAMOND
LAKE
LUTHERAN CHURCH

Welcome to Diamond Lake Lutheran Church!

We are so glad you are here! If you'd like more information about this community of faith, please fill out a Welcome card (found in the pew pockets near the hymnals) and place it in the offering plate or hand it to an usher following worship. Take the Grow card with you if you wish! We invite you to enjoy coffee and Bogart's Doughnuts in the Commons before and after worship. Please wear your name tag each Sunday—it helps us welcome guests, get to know one another, and support those with memory concerns. If you don't yet have one, visit the Commons Area name tag station to make yours. We encourage adding pronouns to name tags!

Children in Worship

Children are encouraged to be present for worship—build-your-own activity bags are located in the narthex, along with children's bulletins. A nursery is located on the lower level if you need it. Please ask an usher for directions. If you are a nursing parent, you are welcome to nurse anywhere. If you would like privacy, there is a nursing room in the nursery downstairs.

Guest Pastor

Rev. Emmy Kegler is a queer Christian mom, author, pastor, and speaker called to ministry at the margins of the church. She served as an ELCA pastor for six years before transitioning out of congregational ministry, and she currently serves as the interim executive director for Inside Out Faith, which promotes LGBTQ+ inclusion within faith communities. She believes in and works for a church rooted in accessibility, intentionality, integrity, and transformation, knowing that God is already out ahead of us creating expansive space for those most hungry for the good and liberating news of Jesus.

TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY

We invite you to rise in body or in spirit each time the ‡ symbol appears.

PRELUDE

Song Without Words, Op. 38, No. 1, Mendelssohn

WORDS OF WELCOME

TRINITY CHIMES

‡ CALL TO WORSHIP

On this Sunday, Christians around the world come together to celebrate the festival day of Transfiguration, when Jesus was transformed before the disciples' eyes, spoke with the great leaders Moses and Elijah, and heard a voice from heaven say, "This is my beloved Son."

On this Sunday, we gather out of the cold and ice, out of the chill of winter and of frozen hearts, and we lift our eyes up in hope.

We have come through a dark and despairing valley,

Holding on to hope and to each other even in the shadow of death.

We have climbed with weary but determined feet,

Proclaiming our belief with every step that something good still lies before us.

We have come to reach the summit of God's mercy,

And to look out upon the wide world
with eyes of diligent grace.

And here we rest, releasing our burdens,
and breathe in the mountain air—
a quiet yet fearsome peace.

We pause to breathe and rest together.

God of majesty,
as we rest as one from our many journeys,
we long for the same transformations
that the disciples received.
We look for revelation.

Reveal to us
The gift of your law,
That we like Moses might know the blessings
of righteousness and justice,
and ground our every action in your command:
You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

Reveal to us
The gift of your prophets,
That we like Elijah might turn away from the idols
of cruelty, violence, greed, and oppression,
and trust instead in your still small voice
and your unending care for the widow and orphan.

Reveal to us
The gift of your beloved son,
That we in Him might too know our own belovedness.

Amen.

Let us pray.

Transfigured Christ,

to listen to you and follow you into the world in service,

loving our neighbor as ourself.

Amen.

‡ GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al - le-lu - ia! Lord and Sav - ior: o - pen now your sav - ing word.

Let it burn like fire with - in us; speak un - til our hearts are stirred.

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord, we sing for the good news that you bring.

‡ GOSPEL: MATTHEW 17:1-9

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the seventeenth chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

General Fund

We give thanks for all the ways members and friends of Diamond Lake Lutheran Church contribute to the mission and vision of this congregation—gifts of time, gifts of participation and expertise, as well as finances. Financial gifts to the general fund help to make possible both in-house and outreach ministries, as well as sharing of our resources with the wider community.

February Mission of the Month: Lake Street Council

Recent immigration raids have made it harder for some business owners and employees to show up safely and consistently, leading to lost income and increased uncertainty. The February Mission of the Month supports Lake Street Council, whose work helps employ community members, keep storefronts open, and sustain the neighborhood's economic and cultural vitality. To learn more about the Lake Street Council and its work, go to www.visitlakestreet.com.

Give to the General Fund or Mission of the Month via:

Cash – Use a “Give Back” envelope from the pew pocket to designate a fund for your donation.

Check – Write the name of the designated fund in the memo line.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. and for the work to which you have been called.
Amen.

‡ SENDING HYMN

The Spirit Sends Us Forth to Serve.....ELW 551

‡ DISMISSAL

Jesus' disciples could not remain on the mountain.

They walked back into their ordinary lives with Jesus by their side and a simple and everlasting invitation:

Do not be afraid.

We, too, cannot stay here.

The hope we receive is not for our own comfort,
but sends us out into a world hungry
to know what it is like to be unafraid.

Let us go first.

Let us go into the world

With eyes determined to see the truth.

Let us go into the world

With feet steady to seek those in need.

Let us go into the world

With hands holding tight to love.

Thanks be to God.
