FOLLOWING WORSHIP TODAY!

Thirty members of Diamond Lake Lutheran made a pilgrimage to Greece and Türkiye last October. Head to the Lakeview Room following worship today to view images and hear stories about their adventures (and misadventures!) as they followed in the footsteps of the Apostle Paul. The presentation will last about one hour.

Fat Tuesday on Wednesday is back! First, join us for a pancake feast! When we're done eating we'll burn last year's palms to create ash for the Ash Wednesday service on Feb 18.

Then, stay for the performance of Six Points Theater's The Happiest Man on Earth! This inspirational solo performance by JC Cutler brings a powerful Holocaust memoir to life, honoring resilience, remembrance, and the enduring strength of the human spirit. Free and all are welcome!

Kids Club will run until 8 pm due to the ending time of this performance. Thank you to our volunteers for accommodating this!

New Pursers Wanted: We're COUNTING on You

We're looking for a few more pursers to serve on Sunday mornings. Pursers are responsible for counting and recording the weekly offering. Volunteers are paired with an unrelated, experienced purser for a brief shift following worship and typically serve about once every five weeks. Training will take place in early February. If you're interested in serving in this simple but important way, contact Jan Michaletz at jan.michaletz@gmail.com.

Empty Bowls Mpls

Sunday, Feb 8, 10 am–2 pm

Judson Memorial Baptist, 4101 Harriet Avenue South

Help raise funds for nonprofits addressing hunger and housing insecurity. Attendees will enjoy soup, bread, and dessert donated by local restaurants. With a suggested donation of $25, you'll select a handmade ceramic bowl, share the meal, and take the bowl home as a reminder of neighbors in our community who are hungry and unhoused. Learn more at emptybowlsmpls.org.
