SUMMER SERIES: EXPLORING REVELATION

WEDNESDAYS, JULY 9–AUGUST 20
6–7:30 PM

DINNER • SHORT VIDEO • CONVERSATION

Exploring Revelation Starts Wednesday, July 9!

The book of Revelation is filled with vivid imagery and mystery, but also a deep message of hope. This summer, we're exploring how its words might offer new beginnings for people of faith today. Each evening begins with dinner in the Lakeview Room or on the deck (weather permitting), followed by a short video and conversation. No need to come every time—just join when you can.

Pete will be serving Greek-inspired meals at the first two sessions and the final one—please sign up in the Commons Area, use the email link, or scan the QR code so we have a headcount for dinner on July 9.

Raid Response Training

Thursday, July 10

6:30-8:30 pm

Diamond Lake Lutheran

We're all seeing the images regularly now—ICE raids with families torn apart, communities living in fear, and individuals standing up to ICE with strength and solidarity. You can learn how to take action, too. Join us to gain practical tools, hear from experienced advocates, and discover how you can help protect immigrant communities and resist unjust enforcement practices.

All attendees must be registered ahead of time.
