It's Our First Annual Block Party!

Wednesday, September 23

5:30–7:30 pm

The whole neighborhood is invited to celebrate fall together with a live band, a bouncy house, food, games, and tons of fun! This is THE event on Wednesday: Dinner will be served outside and we are not having Kids Club or Youth Group. Coloring Shadows is a retro-styled band playing unique versions of songs from yesterday and today featuring singers, guitars, banjo, drums, keyboards, mandolin, accordion, harmonica, and more. The block party is for people of all ages and is free and absolutely all are welcome!

We will need many hands to help pull off this event for the wider community. Please scan the QR code to sign up!

New Bible Study Series: Stars of the Old Testament

Wednesdays until November 18

4:30–5:30 pm

This fall we're traveling through scripture alongside heroes like Noah, Deborah, David, Ruth, Jonah, and Esther as we ask questions about what it means to be a person of faith in our own time and place. This series will be led by staff member Austen Hartke—a seminary-trained scholar and self-professed Bible nerd—but is intentionally structured for all curious adults regardless of educational background. All are welcome!
